Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tuchittoi et al, US 6,633,395.

Re claim 18, Tuchittoi discloses a printer which receives print data from a host and prints an image corresponding to said print data, comprising (see figures 1, 17-23 with corresponding text): a printing unit which executes a print job after receiving, from the host, print job data including job identification information and print data and having a job end command attached to the end thereof (see figures 1, 17-23 with corresponding text); a printing cancellation unit which, during printing corresponding to received print job, in response to a printing cancellation request operation on an operating panel of the printer, halts said printing and transmits a data cancellation request with print job ID to said host (see figures 1, 17-23 with corresponding text), so as to cause said host to determine if a current print data corresponds to the print job ID (see figures 1, 17-23 with corresponding text), and to, when the current data corresponds to the job ID, halt transmission of the print data for said print job, attach said job end command to the current print job data, and transmit said job end command to said printer (see figures 1, 17-23 with corresponding text); and a discarding processing unit which discards received print data inside said printer up to said job end command (see figures 1, 17-23 with corresponding text).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

See Neilsen, US 6,639,687 (figure 13 with text) and Osada, US 6,600,569 (figure 19 with text).
